DETAILED ACTION

Specification

The specification is objected to as failing to provide proper antecedent basis for the claimed subject matter. See 37 CFR 1.75(d)(1) and MPEP § 608.01(o). Correction of the following is required: there is no description in the specification for the subject matter of claim 6.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 3-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Tobias (US 2,577,595). Tobias shows a multicompartmented pillow formed by a left side cushion 20, right side cushion 21, a tubular neck support 22, a left side compartment 25 which holds cushion 20, a right side compartment 26 which contains cushion 22, and a tubular compartment 27 which contains the tubular neck cushion 22. A division line 30 is formed between the compartments 25, 26 while the opposed ends 31 of the compartments 25, 26 can be opened to insert and/or remove the cushions 20, 21. The tubular cushion 22 can also be removed from the compartment 27, with the cushion 22 being held in place by a tie tape 45 which acts as a fastener. Note also the fastener tapes 61 (Figures 15 and 18 which can inherently be used to change the contour and shape of the pillow.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Cho (US 4,640,582), Degen (US 3,849,810), Banks (US 1,385,355), and Coursey (US 3,061,844) show adjustable pillows which are of general interest.
